CFES Canadian Federation of Earth Sciences Board

The Finance Director is responsible for overseeing the financial operations of the Society, including compiling the annual operating budget for Board approval. Results are monitored and reported to the Executive on a monthly basis throughout the year and recommendations to improve the financial position of the Society are made for Board consideration. Financial information is provided by the CSEG Managing Director and communicated through financial statements that are prepared and managed by the CSEG accountant, Associations Plus. Other responsibilities include monitoring and reporting to the Board upon the status of investments and advising on reinvestments as required.

CSEG Foundation
This committee is responsible for promoting the geophysical discipline by providing student scholarships and other educational funding related to the practice of geophysics.

Honours & Awards
The Past-President (Chair) is charged with identifying candidates worthy of Meritorious Service, Honorary Membership and the CSEG Medal awards. Varied criteria exist that govern bestowing these awards upon any individual within our membership. Committee consists of Past President and immediate two past Presidents. Board votes anonymously and unanimously for these awards.

Presidents Advisory Council
Consisting of the last ten Past-Presidents of the society or a selected advisory group of Past Presidents. This group offers guidance and advice to the current President and Vice President of the society. This group offers historical perspective and seasoned insight upon issues being brought forward and discussed.

Personnel
This group, comprised of the Past President (Chair), the President and the President, of the society are responsible for the selection, performance and evaluation of the societies employees and contracted office staff.
